

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Monday, October 10, 2011

ALCI Ministries will host their annual Healing and Deliverance Summit entitled: 2011 PRETTY IN PINK and M.A.C.H.O (Men Against Corruption, Havoc & Oppression) on Saturday, November 5, 2011 at the Union Star M.B. Church, 3915 West Chicago Ave., Chicago, IL 60651 starting at 9:00A.M. The event is divided into two parts, the morning session will be dedicated to discussing the needs of women and the afternoon session starting at 2:00PM will address the needs of men.

The mission of this years' Healing and Deliverance Summit will focus on restoring the lives of people that have a history of Sex Trafficking, Domestic Violence, Sexual Abuse and HIV/AIDS. This Healing and Deliverance Summit is not only intended to spiritually uplift but also will provide non-profit resource information designed to help people deal with these issues. This event is a prime opportunity for life coaches and leaders that have personal experience with these crises to connect with and become an advocate for people that need deliverance.

For this event, we are delighted to present our keynote speaker, the dynamic and awesome Apostle Betty Yancey. For anyone not familiar with Apostle Yancey, she was ordained into ministry in 1986 and began her pastorate in 1987. In the year 2000, she was joined in ministry by her husband, Senior Pastor Willie Yancey. Together, they shoulder responsibility for Living Bread Apostolic Church. As Visionaries and Overseers of LBAC, they have been divinely graced with the ability to minister the word of God with love and in truth and has help hundreds of people dedicate their life to Jesus Christ.

This is a FREE event is open to the general public, so please come out and join us as we fellowship together, pray together, and praise GOD together. Complimentary lunch will be served between the morning and afternoon sessions.

ABOUT ALCI Ministries – A Life Changing International Ministries was founded by international speaker and Pastor, Prophetess J. Renee Young in 2001. Pastor Young, after several life threatening incidents, was called to spearhead this anointed ministry since she is has the gift of inspiring young people to live a more fulfilled life by walking with Christ. As a former member of Apostolic Faith Church in Chicago, she has hosted (3) three major life changing conferences (Prophetic Word, Pretty In Pink and M.A.C.H.O.) that focuses on helping men and women overcome problems that stem from a life of abuse and personal tragedy. Pastor Young is continuing her spiritual faith walk this year with the November 2011 Healing and Deliverance Summit.
